

Boundaries Training

Life-enriching Relationships in the Congregation

We are created in and for relationships. Life-enriching relationships, whether with intimate partners, family, friends, colleagues or parishioners, require healthy boundaries. This workshop explores the meaning and practice of healthy boundaries in the context of ministry. It will also identify the signs, dangers, and preventions of boundary violations including those in today's social media. The workshop begins with an assumption that the complexity of relational dynamics in the congregation is one of its greatest possibilities and its greatest challenges for ministry.

Ministers in the Southeast Gateway Area of the Christian Church of Mid-America will also have the opportunity to participate in training at Eden Seminary in St. Louis on Friday, February 10, 2012. For more information on the SEGA site, contact Chris Davis at cdavis@eden.edu.

Facilitator: Donna Rose-Heim is an ordained Disciple minister, currently serving as Interim Minister of First Christian Church, Independence, MO. Donna served as North West Area Co-Pastor with her husband Bill for 9 1/2 years. She serves as lead instructor for the Mid-America Region in providing "Boundary Training" for clergy. She was trained by Dr. Marie Fortune and Dr. Aleese Moore-Orbih of the Faith Trust Institute. She is author of "Dream Walking", which she published in 2007, and "Dream Walking for Kids" will be published this fall. She has led numerous retreats about the spiritual life.

This event fulfills the requirement for Boundaries Training for ministers in the Christian Church (DOC) of Mid-America and Christian Church of Greater Kansas City. Ministers of other denominations are welcome, but should check with their judicatory offices to ascertain whether this meets denominational requirements.
